The Molina Healthcare Charitable Foundation Donates $5,000 to National Alliance on Mental Illness of Greater Orlando

ORLANDO, Fla. Oct. 6, 2021 – The Molina Healthcare Charitable Foundation, in collaboration with Molina Healthcare of Florida (“Molina”) has donated $5,000 to the National Alliance on Mental Illness of Greater Orlando (NAMIGO).

The grant will support Family to Family educational classes for those in the area who have experience with mental illness. It will also help fund Mental Illness Awareness Week activities designed to end the stigma surrounding mental illness and encourage community involvement.

“Working to end the stigma of mental illness is a top priority at Molina,” said Sherry Thornton-Main, associate vice president of community engagement for Molina Healthcare of Florida. “We’re grateful for the opportunity to partner with NAMIGO to help raise awareness in the communities we serve.”

“At NAMIGO, we’re dedicated to improving the quality of life for individuals affected by mental illness and to supporting them through education, support and advocacy,” said Eric Welch, executive director of NAMIGO. “We’re so grateful to those who come alongside us in these efforts.”

Mental Illness Awareness Week takes place September 29 through October 10 and includes 10 events through the greater Orlando area.
